Appeal Panel of Council Decision – June 6, 2025

IN ACCORDANCE WITH BYLAW 24.5 OF
THE COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGEONS OF ALBERTA

DECISION OF THE APPEAL PANEL OF COUNCIL

On March 19, 2025, an Appeal Panel of Council found Dr. Kherani guilty of unprofessional conduct in relation to a complaint about orthodontic treatment and she was sanctioned. An Appeal Panel of Council is an independent group of decision makers comprised of two members of the public appointed by the Government of Alberta and two dentists registered in Alberta.

Dr. Kherani admitted that between January 2014 and October 2016 she had failed to create adequate patient records including failing to appropriately document the treatment plan, changes to the treatment plan, and changes to the length of the treatment plan.

ORDERS OF APPEAL PANEL OF COUNCIL

The Appeal Panel of Council accepted a Joint Submission on Penalty from the parties and issued the following orders on sanction:

1. Dr. Kherani is reprimanded, with the decision of the Appeal Panel serving as the reprimand;
and
2. Dr. Kherani will repay fees for professional services in the amount of $8,000.00 to the patient.
